

Where Sky meets Mountains

Trekking

Duration: 11 days

Season: July – September

The Osh region is the largest region of Kyrgyzstan, with a multiethnic population consisting of 1.4 million people. It lies in the southern part of Pamir-Alai and includes the hilly lowlands of the Fergana Valley.

Geographically located at the foot of the Pamir mountain range, Osh held a special position in the style of caravan routes that made up the Silk Road. Osh was located at the crossroads of several branches of caravan trails, and was an important staging post in transit trade.

With this tour you will have chance to taste the one of ancient nomads trail from Osh to the Chon Alai valley. The trail were used by epic Queen of Alay "Kurmanjan Datka"
